FEDERAL'S FAST MILE.

Although yesterday was an off day at the Worth track there was no noticeable falling off in the attendance, which has held good throughout the week thus far. The weather was all that could be desired and the racing excellent in all particulars. The leading race of the day was the fourth, a dash of one mile for four-year-olds and upward. The talent was almost equally divided in its choice between Federal and Constellator, although the former was always held as a prime favorite. Constellator ran a shabby race and failed to show that sharp turn of speed he is known to possess at any part of the race. Lennep dashed to the front at flag dip and, setting a scorching pace, led by a good margin up to the turn for home, where Federal closed on her. He came down the stretch fast and had no trouble passing Lennep in the final eighth and winning easily by a length. Lennep beat Orontas a neck for second place. The latter was badly outrun in the first part of the race, but closed up resolutely while coming down the last quarter and would have taken second place in a stride or two. Pay the Fiddler ran in remarkably improved form and is ready to win when placed right. Constellator ran well for a half mile and then gradually fell away beaten.

Gallantrie showed herself to be more than an ordinary filly by picking up 115 pounds in the third race, a scramble of five furlongs for two-year-olds, and winning under urging by a short half length from Nellie Waddell, which lasted long enough to beat Julia Junkin a head on the post for second money. The last named showed a sudden revival in form from her last effort which was a poor one. I. Samelien ran in sharp contrast to his showing of several days before and was easily outrun for the entire distance. Autumn Leaves, which most of the handicappers figured as the best, showed no great speed at any part of the flight and was never a serious contender.

The day's opener proved to be an easy matter for Do Madge, which came away in a canter when called upon at the head of the stretch and won without any trouble by three lengths. Prairie Dog was second a length before Lady Idrie. The latter tired badly in the last eighth. Edith Q., supposed to be a "good thing," ran a fairly good race. The Jefferson showed an early turn of speed.

C. B. Campbell repeated his victory of two days before by taking the second race, a dash of one and an eighth miles, in a stiff drive by a neck from Free Pass, which ran in much improved form over her last showing. Laureate led for a space, when C. B. Campbell assumed command, closely pressed by Free Pass. They ran almost as one horse for the last half, C. B. Campbell outgaming Free Pass in the closing strides. El Ghor finished third three lengths back. Laureate quit badly in the last quarter. Munro could not hold up Ben Chance's head at any part of the race and the horse could not extend himself at his best.

Red Hook was dropped into an easy berth in the fifth race, a scramble of six furlongs for two-year-olds. He simply cantered home the easiest of winners by a length and a half from Inspector Shea, which beat the rank outsider Tom Wallace three for second place. Outside of the winner it was a field of bad youngsters.

Greetings, a rank outsider in the setting, won the last race of the day, a dash of seven furlongs, in a long stretch drive from Eva Rice by a neck. The latter led until turning from home where Hicks brought Greetings up with a rush. It appeared as if the latter would win easily in the last eighth, but Eva Rice rallied along in here and Greetings had to be driven out to the limit to win. Evelyn Byrd finished third three lengths back. She had enough when a furlong out. Henry of Trastamare ran a fairly good race, but can do better when at his best. Jessie Jarboe ran far below expectations and did not run anywhere near her true form.

Free Pass was claimed out of the second race by W. Cahill for $600.

Coburn was fined $10 for "cheating" the scales while weighing in for the last race.

READY AT LAKESIDE.

When the entries for the Lakeside Handicap closed Thursday Secretary Nathanson found he had gathered in no fewer than twenty-five of the best horses in training here—barring two-year-olds, of course.

The announcement of weights today must be followed by declarations, or a forfeit of $5 will be incurred. Starters will pay $15 additional, and as the Lakeside Jockey Club adds $800 the gross value of the race seems likely to be about a thousand dollars.

This event will be the feature of the card next Monday, the opening day of the Lakeside Jockey Club's fall meeting of fifteen days. It is a handicap for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and a sixteenth, and at the weights allotted it can hardly fail to bring about a really interesting race. There is a range of twenty-two pounds in the weights, which are:

Horse.	A. Wt.	Horse.	A. Wt.
Federal	5 112	St. Marcos	3 112
Gambrian	5 111	Denman Thompson	3 111
The Pride	5 109	Telamon	3 108
Vulcan	4 106	The Conqueror II	4 116
The Lady	4 105	Haviland	4 104
Rolling Boer	3 104	Gonfalon	4 104
Constellator	4 103	Orontas	4 103
Malay	5 98	Leo Newell	3 98
Odor	3 97	W. J. Deboe	3 97
Kentucky Babe	4 96	Reseda	4 95
Omdurman	3 93	Crosby	4 90
Benckart	3 90	Frangible	4 90
Valdez	3 90

The coming Lakeside meeting promises to furnish good class racing to the end of the season. The strongest stables will run there and the management has recognized this by increasing the purses. The sum of $40,000 is to be distributed during the fifteen days of racing, and some owners who were about to ship to Latonia changed their minds when they perused the program book for Lakeside's first week. G. W. Cook has decided to divide his stable, remaining here with the best, including Orontas, Merriment and Omdurman.

The exodus to Lakeside already has begun, and when the sun set yesterday the following stables had arrived and taken up the quarters assigned to them: J. E. Cushing's, G. W. Poole's, B. Vincent's, M. H. Tichenor's, C. E. Brossman's, F. T. Wood's, D. P. Rodgers' and Dave Waldo's. The stables have undergone any necessary repairs, and the track is found to be hard and fast and in fine condition.

Apparently owners are eager to get into the game ahead of time and make a good showing, for when Secretary Nathanson closed his office last night he had already received forty-one entries for the five purses on Monday's card apart from the twenty-five entered for the handicap.

On Sunday special trains of stable cars will run from Worth to Lakeside and the railway officials have guaranteed they will not be stalled all night, as was the case recently. They undertake to deliver all their live freight at Lakeside the same day as shipped.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Latonia fall meeting begins this afternoon and it is pleasant to note that there is every indication that it will be about the most prosperous meeting held at the old track for several years. Horses in abundance, a strong ring, no opposition, and the fact that Cincinnati has had no racing for a long time and is probably hungry for a renewal of the fascinating sport, are factors that should serve to make amends for the discouraging circumstances under which the Latonia spring meeting was conducted. DAILY RACING FORM is solicitous for the success of racing wherever properly conducted in this country and trusts that the Latonia Jockey Club will now enjoy the abundant patronage that has been such a strongly marked feature of racing elsewhere throughout the land this year.

DAILY RACING FORM gives considerable space in this issue to displaying the remarkably good patronage that has been awarded the California Jockey Club's list of stakes that closed October 5. There was an unjustified impression in some quarters that these events would not make a showing as good as in former years and it is gratifying to note that so far is this from being the case that the entries excel any here, before made for these particular stakes. It is evident that San Francisco is to have a season of racing unexcelled in its past history, and it is now in order for owners to make their entries in the second list of stakes, the conditions of which appear in the advertising department of this issue and entries to which close November 4.

"When I was back east recently," said Captain Rice, "I had to sit still and hear ex-Jockey Combs tell how he burned my money and made me poor when he subjected my horse, Wax Taper, to the illegal restraint for which he was ruled off. I tell you it made me boil to hear the man tell how he pulled my horse when I was betting a lot of money on him. Yet the confession had it droll features, too. Combs made his confession in my presence to Bob Pinkerton, the detective."

"Combs," said Pinkerton, "at what particular place did you pull Wax Taper?"

"Mr. Pinkerton," replied the unfortunate man, "there was no particular place. He was so much the best that I took no chances. I began to pull him at the start, kept pulling him to the last eighth, where there was a mix-up. Then I took advantage of that to pull him good. So I handed the air to the Westinghouse brake and put it down so hard that I thought he was through. But he was so full of run and fight that I had to keep pumping air to him going down the last sixteenth. It was a case of pull from start to finish."

"It made me feel bad for myself because of the money I lost," continued Captain Rice, "and bad for the horse who was fighting, even his rider, from whom he had a right to expect some help, in order to win for me. I felt like killing the man then, but when I thought it over I saw that not he, but a bookmaker whom, he admitted, gave him $600 for pulling the horse, was the real culprit. Combs never can ride again, but he turned up this bookmaker proper."

"It was rumored that certain handbook makers of St. Louis, whose places of business are west of Fourteenth street, had a hand in the job, and that they paid Combs to pull the horse, who was always backed in St. Louis. This, Captain Rice says, is not true, that only one bookmaker and his agent was implicated, and they operate in New York."—St. Louis Republic.

Senator Tim Sullivan and other Tammany chieftains' new race track at Jamaica, L. I., which will be known as the Metropolitan Jockey Club, will be completed by April 1, 1902, just in time to allow the club to hold a spring

C. B. Campbell, Federal, Red Hook,

Were a few of our winners Friday. We only call this fair for one of the last days.

12 to 50 to 1 SATURDAY.

Every move this good thing has made lately has been closely watched by our experts. They are positive that he has improved twenty pounds over his last public appearance.

THEN HE WAS A SELLING PLATER. TODAY HE IS A STAKE HORSE.

He has worked with STAKE horses and has beaten them decisively. Our advice on this good thing is as follows: We shall advise every patron to bet their LIT on him, be it five dollars (5) or five hundred ($500). We have other good things in view today, three that will be from 2 to 6 to 1 each. While not so attractive as regards odds we consider them very good and safe bets. If you are in doubt yours—if in picking winners come to us. We will send you to the track fully equipped with horse knowledge, as the plunger who day after day and year after year have been growing rich by the use of our information.

TERMS: $1.00 DAILY. $4.00 WEEKLY. READY AT 9 A. M.

Went to post at 2:10. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a canter; second handily. Do Madge was much the best and came away with the utmost ease when called upon at the head of the stretch. Prairie Dog showed much improvement over his last race and finished strongly. Lady Idris showed speed but tired and quit when the pinch came. Edith Q. did well and is gradually rounding into her best form. She bears watching from now on. The Jefferson and Audie showed early speed.

Winner—Ch. g. by King Regent—Gold Bond.
Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. C. B. Campbell showed great gameness while coming down the last eighth stalling off Free Pass' bid with determination. The latter showed striking improvement. He stood a drive for an eighth of a mile, but the winner was just a shade too good. El Ghor ran right to the mark. Laureate's effort was an indifferent one. Munro was unable to hold Ben Chance's head up and the horse refused to extend himself. The other were never serious contenders. The winner was run up to $1,000 by Lockart Brothers and bought in.
Scratched—28942 Old Mike, 101.

Winner—Br. f. by Gallantry—Remnant.
Went to post at 3:05. At post 10 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Gallantie showed a sharp turn of speed and held the lead from flag fall to finish. She had to be hustled out at the end, as both Nellie Waddell and Julia Junkin closed up fast on her in the closing strides. Both the latter ran in much improved form. Julia Junkin was beaten off several days before in about the same field with lighter weight. I. Samuelson ran a much different race from his effort of October 22, when he ran Nellie Waddell to retirement in the first quarter. Autumn Leaves was never a serious contender.

Winner—Br. g. by Burlington or Kingston—Forethought.
Went to post at 3:45. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Federal was much the best and after Lennep had run herself into weariness came on and won without any trouble. The latter was speedy for seven furlongs and then began to tire. Orontas came with a rush at the end and would have been second in a stride or two. Pay the Fiddler ran in greatly improved form and bears watching from now on. Constellator's race was not to his true form and should be thrown out.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Red Hook was thrown into an easy spot and simply played with his field when called upon. Inspector Shea was much the best of the others. Tom Wallace finished resolutely next to the inside rail and lasted long enough to beat Lawrence M. on the post. The latter lost ground by swinging wide into the stretch or else he would have been third. Marcos showed early speed, as did also Ashbrook.

Went to post at 4:50. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving; second easily. Greetings moved up fast when turning for home and stood a drive gamely through the last eighth with Eva Rice. The latter showed much speed but tired a little in the closing strides. Evelyn Byrd had enough when a quarter out. Henry of Trastamare ran a fairly good race. Jessie Jarboe's race was not to her true form. She showed speed for a quarter only and can do much better.

Winner—B. or br. f. by Ben Strome—Prudence. Went to post at 2:00. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Lady Uncas was lucky and is in fine form. She was well ridden and won going away. Bellario has a sore mouth which caused him to break slowly and lose a lot of ground but he closed with a tremendous rush in the stretch, is much improved and will probably beat good ones from now on. Cervera broke running and displayed brilliant speed but tired at the end. Roxane had not much chance at the start but finished like a whirlwind. Ben Mac Dhui is a pronounced quitter. Scratched—(28931) Chucatanunda, 117; 28931 Carbuncle, 109. Overweights—Cervera, 2 pounds.

Lady Uncas, show, 4 to 5. Bellario, show, 1 to 3. Cervera, show, evens. Roxane, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Br. f. by George Kessler—Breakdown. Went to post at 2:35. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. Champagne broke flat-footed and closed a tremendous gap and was best. Destitute made up much ground and finished fast. Early Eve lasted longer than usual. Ice Water ran in improved form. Octoroon was badly handled and was crossed and interfered with a half dozen times in the last furlong. Pearl Finder finished well. Scratched—28896 Blanche Herman, 109; 28949 Somersault, 109; 28932 Wild Bess, 109. Champagne, show, out. Destitute, show, 4 to 5. Early Eve, show, 7 to 5. Octoroon, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Bramble or Kingston—Lady Wayward. Went to post at 3:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Wayward Boy was easily best, moved to the front with a rare burst of speed on the stretch turn and won easily. Rappenecker ran a game race and was going strongly at the end. Marotien is probably still short, as he was tiring in the last furlong. Piederich was many lengths out of the race at the half, but finished with a great rush. He requires a strong, vigorous rider and a longer distance. Donna Henrietta showed speed for six furlongs. Sentry quit badly in the stretch and is best in mud or on a cuppy track. Overweights—Rappenecker, 1 pound; Marotien, 3; Donna Henrietta, 1. Wayward Boy, show, 2 to 5. Rappenecker, show, 4 to 5. Marotien, show, 6 to 5. Piederich, show, 2 to 5. Sentry, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Aintree—Stephanie. Went to post at 3:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Astor is in rare form and galloped unextended throughout. Hammock, also very good, ran a good race and will show to advantage on a heavy track. Warranted broke slowly, but finished strongly after making up much ground. Topmast quit badly in the stretch and is evidently in bad form. Astor, show, out. Hammock, show, out. Warranted, show, 3 to 5. Topmast, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. g. by Star Ruby—Baby. Went to post at 4:00. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving. Honolulu received a lucky start and skiffed ride, but was probably best anyway. Trump put up a speedy and game race and was well ridden and will be hard to beat on a heavy track. Rose of May was lucky and was well ridden, but failed to stick at the end. Francesco broke flat footed and could never make up the ground lost at the start, but ran poorly anyhow. Carrington was prominent to the stretch, where he failed to make good. Scratched—28914 Lady Holyrood, 101; 28913 Lady Godiva, 95. Honolulu, show, 1 to 2. Trump, show, 3 to 5. Rose of May, show, evens. Francesco, show, 1 to 4.

28971 SIXTH RACE—1 1-4 Miles. $1,000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Winner—Blk. m. by Wagner—Fondling. Went to post at 4:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Imp is in grand form again, was never extended and far outclassed her field. Advance Guard finished strong as usual, but was up against it when he tackled such a wonder as Imp when good. Rafaello came fast at the end but is greatly handicapped by a fast track. Decater was a wild horse for half the journey but when called upon sailed badly. He is a bad tempered horse now. Scratched—28933 Tom Kenny, 98. Overweights—Rafaello, 5 pounds. No show betting.

Neil, Edna Brown, David S., Jim Hale, Arbaces, Morinel, Sidney Lucas, Lady Godiva, Byron Rose, Sea Lion.

Green B. Morris has arrived at Oakland from the East with about twenty horses. Among them is Water Cure, about the best horse over a distance of ground that will be at San Francisco this winter.

So many horses have been sent to the Oakland track that every available stall is filled and about 150 of the lowest class of horses were sent away from the track Monday to find quarters elsewhere.

It is stated that the results of the races will be announced in the betting ring this season through a megaphone.
